

Job Sectors and Career Choices

For people with no definite career aims it is useful to focus on job sectors and areas to help decide what they are suited to and to relate their skills, experience and interest to different sectors

Look at the job areas below (areas listed online by fasjobsireland at www.fas.ie) and think about the areas you would like to work in to help you narrow down your options

Tick the box opposite your areas of interest

1. Animal, land, marine, mining and exploration
2. Arts, literature
