

Jobs and Careers

Each of the workers listed below can be linked to one or more of the employment sectors in the box. Try to match them correctly.

medicine	entertainment	transport	computers
beauty care	law	police	agriculture
broadcasting	government	banking	tourism
education	retail trade	journalism	fashion
building	defence forces	pharmacy	aviation
horticulture	real estate	film industry	finance

- | | | | |
|-----------------|-------|-------------------|-------|
| travel agent | _____ | politician | _____ |
| comedian | _____ | bank clerk | _____ |
| model | _____ | detective | _____ |
| brick layer | _____ | buyer | _____ |
| accountant | _____ | news reader | _____ |
| programmer | _____ | director | _____ |
| headmaster | _____ | specialist | _____ |
| judge | _____ | dairy farmer | _____ |
| solicitor | _____ | conductor | _____ |
| gardener | _____ | soldier | _____ |
| pilot | _____ | hair dresser | _____ |
| civil servant | _____ | interior designer | _____ |
| barrister | _____ | estate agent | _____ |
| air hostess | _____ | naval officer | _____ |
| musician | _____ | shop assistant | _____ |
| landscaper | _____ | mechanic | _____ |
| physiotherapist | _____ | sergeant | _____ |
| lecturer | _____ | reporter | _____ |
| carpenter | _____ | plumber | _____ |

Writing Tasks

1. With a partner, pick two of the careers and write a description of the work they do.

Include the following

- Where they work
- What training they did
- What qualifications they achieved
- What they do every day
- How much money you think they are paid
- Who they work with
- Is it a dangerous job, a boring job, an interesting job, a tiring job? Give reasons for your opinions.
