

Phoning Quiz

A: Which of these is a Dublin number? How do you know?

01- 677 5327 094 – 907 5337

B: Which is better?

This is Seamus

I am Seamus

Are you Sinead?

Is that Sinead?

Who are you, please?

Who's calling, please?

C. Put these words into the conversations below:

help number give wrong hold is call message speak thank

1. A: Hello, is that 97865743?

B: No, this is 978657452. I think you have the _____ number.

A: Oh! Sorry. Goodbye.

2. A: Integrate Ireland Language and Training.

*B: Hello. This is Peter. I'm in Ciara's class. I won't be at school today.
I need to go to the doctor.*

A: That's ok, Peter. I'll _____ Ciara your message. _____
you for calling.

B: Thank you. Goodbye.

3. A: Good morning. O'Malley Solicitors. Sheila speaking. Can I _____ you?

B: Could I _____ to John Casey, please.

A: Can I say who's _____ing?

B: This _____ Bridget.

A: Can you _____ for a moment, please?

A: I'm sorry, Mr Casey is not available at the moment. He's in a meeting. Would you like to leave a _____?

B: Yes, could you tell him I won't be able to meet him this afternoon and would you ask him to give me a ring this evening around six?

A: Of course. Does Mr Casey have your _____?

B: I think so, but I'll leave my mobile with you just in case. It's 089 4637289.

A: 0-8-9-4-6-3-7-2-8-9. Is that right?

B: Yes, that's it. Thank you. Bye.

A: Goodbye.