I want to study art ...

I have to study art ...

I'm going to study art.....

I might study art

I'll certainly study art....

I hope to study art

I'll probably study art.....

I'm studying art

1. it's a dream of mine.
2. because I'm good at it.
3. I need it for my job.
4. I have already enrolled in the college.
5. I have planned and decided already.
6. I'm not sure yet.
7. I am very sure of this.
8. if everything goes well.

2. Using the forms in 1. write sentences about these topics:

e.g. I'm going to visit a friend next weekend.

next weekend	next dinner	a place to visit
English studies	meeting friends	my family
my house	my career	improving my English
keeping in shape	an appointment I have	next house
next shopping trip	next day out	to spoil myself
next party	my hobbies	improving my diet
after class	next night out	next course

3. With a partner ask and answer questions about the future.

What are your plans for your next night out/ improving your English, etc.?

4. Using the board game in groups discuss your future plans for studies, training and jobs.

Instructions:

1. Get some dice, or write the numbers 1 to 6 on pieces of paper and fold them up in the centre of the table.
2. Put the board on the table between 2 to 4 people.
3. Each player throws the dice or chooses a number. (If you are using paper numbers, put them back on the table after choosing).
4. Each player moves around the board the number of places they have thrown or chosen.
5. When a player lands on a square, they tell the group about their future plans for the topic on the square.

What are your plans for.....?
